PERSONAL BLOGGING WEBPAGE IN IBM

Firstly, install IBM cloud in your device and sign in to it. This process is provided in the skill-up prework project submission. After creating the account follow the following steps to host your static website.

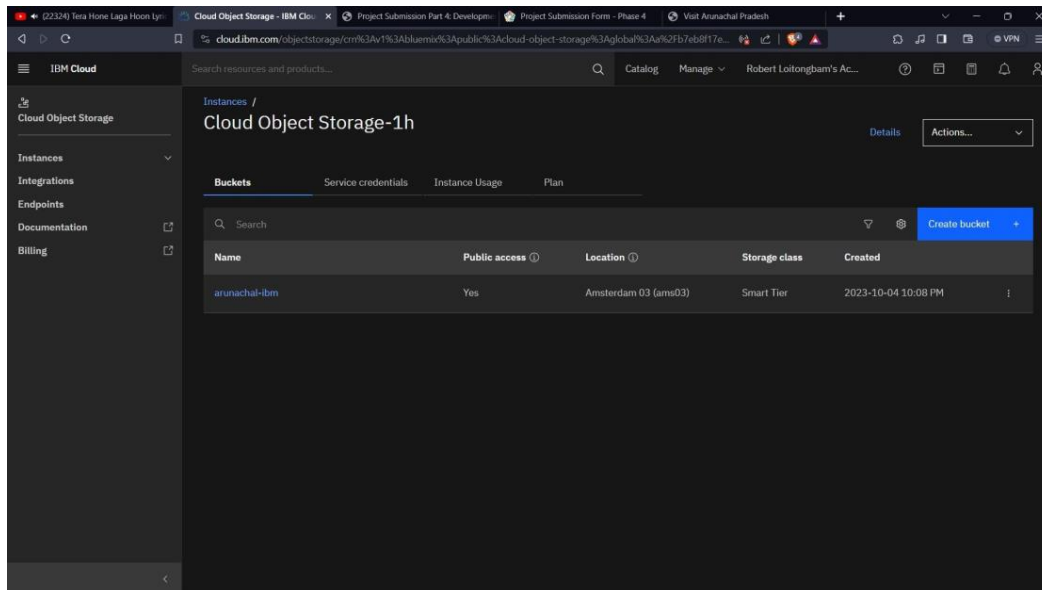

1. In you IBM cloud click on the Navigation Menu.

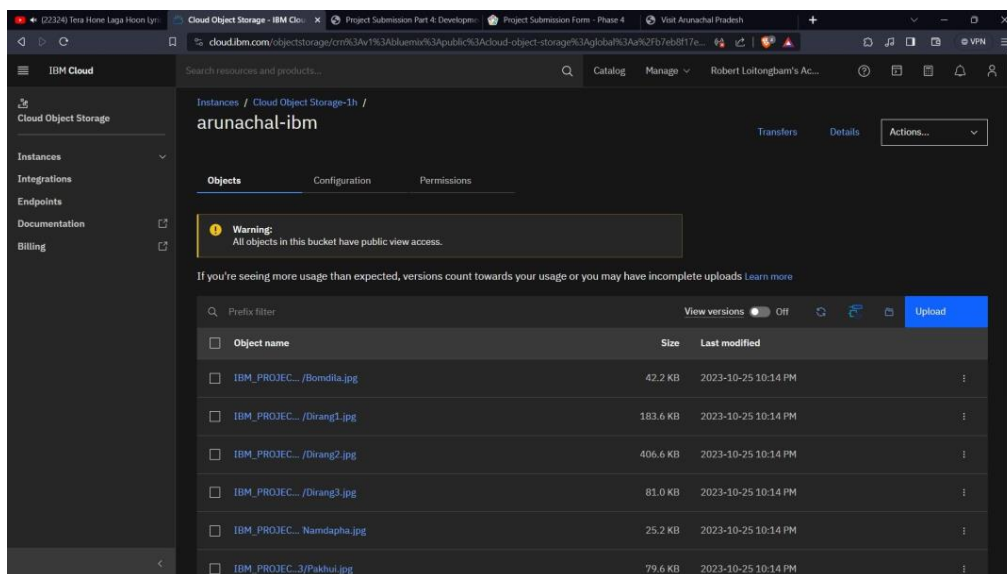

2. Select Resource list and search for Cloud object storage and install it.

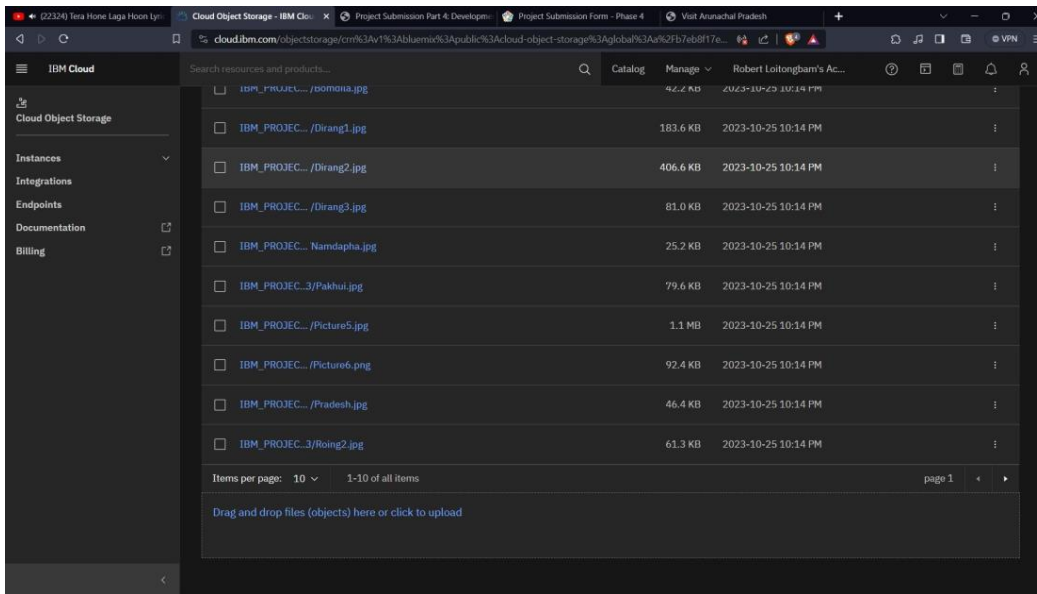

3. After installing object storage create a bucket by clicking Create bucket box.

4. After creating the bucket click on the bucket name and upload the files and folder.

5. After uploading all the files, select the main file which is the source code for the created webpage (file extended with .html).

5. Now copy the URL provided in the “Object public URL”

The screenshot shows the IBM Cloud Object Storage console. The left sidebar contains navigation links for Cloud Object Storage, Instances, Integrations, Endpoints, Documentation, and Billing. The main panel displays the details for the object `IBM_PROJECTS_phase3/phase3.html`. The 'Overview' tab is selected, showing the object's metadata: created on 2023-10-25 10:14 PM, size 11.4 KB, Smart Tier storage class, 0 tags, and 1 version. The 'Object Public URL' is displayed as `https://atunachal-ibm.s3.amazonaws.com/cloud-object-storage/appdomain.cloud/IBM_PROJECTS_phase3/phase3.html`. Below this, the 'Access with Data Engine' section shows the 'Object Data Engine URL' as `cos://ams93/atunachal-ibm/IBM_PROJECTS_phase3/phase3.html`. A message states: 'There is no Data Engine instance available. To provision an Data Engine instance, visit Integrations.' The 'Data Engine Instance' dropdown shows 'No available instance'.

Welcome to our travel blog

Embarking on a journey from the southern tip of India to the breathtaking northern mountains is a travel dream come true. Our road trip from Kanyakumari to Manali took us through diverse landscapes, cultures, and experiences. Join us as we share our travel stories, useful tips, and captivating photos from this unforgettable adventure.

Kanyakumari - The Land's End

Our journey began in Kanyakumari, where the Arabian Sea, the Indian Ocean, and the Bay of Bengal merge. Witnessing the sunrise at the southernmost tip of India was magical. Don't miss the Thiruvalluvar Statue and Vivekananda Rock Memorial for a dose of history and spirituality.

Tips: Stay at a beachfront hotel to enjoy the sound of waves crashing against the shore throughout your stay.
